IELTS Speaking Vocabulary: Handicrafts

In this lesson you will learn some vocabulary and useful expressions to talk about handicrafts, including why they might be good for children and also why they can be important for local communities.

Handicraft (n.) = a thing used for decoration that is made by hand

Do you think we should say 'make' or 'do' with handicrafts?

I _____ handicrafts

The answer is actually both!

If we are talking about handicrafts as a thing, then we use make.

If we are talking about handicrafts as an activity, then we use do.

Handicrafts (Handcrafts)

1) hand-crafted items (things)

2) activities

- Let's make some handicrafts
- Let's do some handicrafts

Arts and crafts

1) hand-crafted items

2) activities

- Let's do some arts and crafts
- I like doing arts and crafts
- I like doing craftwork

There are many different kinds of crafts or handicrafts. When we are talking about activities, we have the following

- weaving
- carving
- pottery
- embroidery
- knitting

If we are talking about things, then we have the following, and many more,

- vases
- baskets
- candles
- bags
- wallets
- jewellery

To find out more about the different kinds of handicrafts and learn lots more relevant vocabulary, check out this web page,

Word Families

When building your vocabulary, it is really useful to learn word families, that is the different forms of a word (such as noun, adverb, verb, adjective and so on).

A craft (n.) = an activity, a skill

Writing a book is a craft.

To craft (v.) = to make skilfully

I've crafted this lovely candle

Crafty (adj.) = clever and cunning, sly

He is so crafty, he didn't tell anyone that he had won the lottery, so they wouldn't ask him for money.

Craftsmanship (n.) = skill, ability

I admire her craftsmanship

Places to buy handicrafts

Flea markets

Street markets

There are many nouns used for cheap handicrafts, including,

- Bric a brac (n.) Uncountable
- Trinkets (inf.)
- Knick knacks (inf.)

Whilst the above nouns are informal and quite colloquial, you can still use them for IELTS Speaking. The following are quite neutral and can also be used in IELTS Speaking.

- Ornaments (n.)
- Adornments (n.)

Skills for making handicrafts

The following adjectives are mean skilful with your hands

- Dexterous (adj.)
- Nimble-fingered (adj.)
- Handy (adj.)

The following are used to describe people who can use their imagination to make things or have some talent in making handicrafts

- Creative
- Innovative
- Artistic
- I've got an artistic bent

*Whilst handicrafts are handmade goods, the opposite would be mass produced goods or machine made goods

IELTS Speaking Questions

This is the kind of question you might be asked in IELTS Speaking Part 3, together with some useful phrases for your answer.

Should we encourage children to make handicrafts?

Making handicrafts is a good activity because it can unleash their creative mind / artistic talent

They can develop their artistic flair / bent

As far as I can see, it's a great way to earn a living

Doing handicrafts can develop their motor skills

It'll make them more dexterous

It helps keep our traditions intact

It ramps up / builds up their creativity

It's a rewarding activity in itself
